CLUB MEETING

NEXT CLUB MEETING:

There will be a club meeting on next THURSDAY NIGHT, JULY 28th, at 6:30 P. M. at the JUSTICE CENTER 225 Broadway. Come in the South Main doors, the meeting will be in the courtroom, the first doors to your left as you enter. We need all members to attend:

1. Discuss the HK2020 ride coming up on August 30th
2. Discuss plans to help Gabriel with the Hale on Wheels ride during Cowboy Days
3. Hope all members can make it.

HK 2020 Ride

I remember being dropped by a 5 year old with training wheels last year during the HK2020 ride. Well, Coralyn Dillard would like to have the Hale on Wheels Cycling Club members turn out again this year for a short neighborhood ride with the kids of HK 2020. The ride will be on August 30th beginning at 5 PM and will start again at the Running Water Draw Regional Park. Let's have a good turn out for the kids to show them how much fun they can have cycling. If you have a club jersey, please wear it, and, if not, come anyway. There will be media from Lubbock and Covenant Hospital there, so come and get your picture on TV.

RANDY KAUFMAN

Randy was born and raised in Indiana, met his wife, Carol, in Hesston, Kansas, while attending college and Carol brought Randy to Plainview in 1979 after they married. They have three daughters, all married, and three grandsons, ranging in age from 3 months to 6 years. Randy finished his degree in accounting from Wayland and is a Certified Public Accountant and a partner in Lewis, Kaufman & Company where he has worked for 24 years. Randy is very active in the community serving on the boards for Wayland, Plainview Christian Academy, the Noon Optimist Club (where he is the treasurer of the summer baseball program), treasurer for the Plainview Gideons group, and is also our club treasurer. Randy teaches 4th grade Sunday School and sings in the choir at First Baptist Church. Randy has also been past president of the Chamber of Commerce, and a past board member of the Salvation Army, YMCA, and United Way. Randy rides a Giant Defy bicycle and has logged over 3,000 miles in the last 3 years. Randy enjoys riding in organized rides and with other club members.
