Hale on Wheels/Feet

Unless you have been out of town the last few weeks, you know that the 5th Annual Hale on Wheels/ Hale on Feet ride and run during Cowboy Days is coming up in less than 2 weeks, on September 21st. This is our club's namesake ride, so we need a large turn-out from the club. As of now, registrations have been slower in coming than in previous years, so we encourage you to register now if you haven't already. By pre-registering, you have a chance at the cash prizes. Hope everyone can come ride. Gabriel, Ron, Linda Morris of the Chamber, and I, have been really working hard to make this ride and run the best one yet.

HOTTER 'N HELL REPORT

Our club had 4 members, Ron, Jeff, Phil, and I, attempt the 2013 Hotter 'N Hell ride along with about 14,000 other riders. The 3 serious riders completed the 100 mile route, while the geezer of the group finished the 25 mile route. Jeff had a crash at about the 70+ mile mark, when a rider in front of him went down. Jeff went OTB (over the bars) and had a serious crash landing, cracking his helmet and dislocating his shoulder. But being the trooper he is, Jeff got up, popped his shoulder back in, and finished the ride. What a guy!

HK 2020

Once again, the club supported the HK 2020 Kids annual ride. While the starting place was changed without the club's knowledge, everyone made it over to Broadway Park for a short ride. Thanks Phil, Tara, Randy, Yolanda, Richard, Ron, and Frances.
