CAROLYN BAKER:

Carolyn was born in Latrobe, PA, but moved to the promised land before the age of 1. She grew up in the Coldwater Community, east of Texline. Carolyn has her BBA and Accounting degree from WT and is a CPA. She is now the Chief Financial Officer of HCSB and has been with the bank for 23 years. She is a mover and shaker in the community, having been an executive and on the boards of United Way, Wee Care, the country club, and Chamber of Commerce. She was PLAINVIEW'S WOMAN OF THE YEAR in 2010. Carolyn enjoys cycling and, with husband, Tommy, golf, and traveling. Their household is managed by "Bug", their Catahoula dog.

FRANCES BARRERA:

Frances is a lifelong resident of Plainview and a graduate of PHS. She has attended WT, Tech, and Wayland. She has completed almost 30 years at HCSB, where she is a Vice-President, specializing in mortgage, consumer, and aircraft loans. Frances is also a leader in the community, having served on the boards of United Way, Plainview Area Endowment, Chamber, Realtors Association, and PISD groups. She is a graduate of the Leadership Plainview program, and very involved in State wide groups. With husband, Joe, they have started and pastor churches in this area. Her daughter, Jovanna, is the current Miss Wayland. She enjoys cycling, traveling, and spending time with family.

HALE ON WHEELS REPORT:

I am very happy to report that the 2011 Hale on Wheels tour during Cowboy Days will be in the very capable hands of our member, GABRIEL MARTINEZ, as Ride Director. He will be helped by another of our members, MARTIN MONTALVO. Gabriel arranged for Azteca Milling Company to become the corporate sponsor of the ride, with a generous donation of MONEY, to insure that the ride can continue. The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the ride again. The date is September 17, 2011, so mark your calendars now, and, if you have ideas for the ride and are willing to help Gabriel and Martin, please give them a shout.

HAPPY NEW REAR

That is actually the name of a tour that took place on January 1, 2011. (See www.bikinmike.com.) Butt, (no pun intended), that phrase has special meaning to cyclists. So, keep riding, and Happy New Year and Rear.
